Fulfilment comes when we Empty Ourselves and Live for God

According to the Oxford dictionary the word "paradox" means a person, thing or situation that has two opposite features and therefore seems strange.

The fifth-century bishop, and Doctor of the Church, St Augustine of Hippo, realised the paradox of the Christian life. Fulfilment, he said, comes not from filling up our lives but from emptying them. The new life that Jesus brings comes from dying to self, not buying for our self. This is what Augustine said: 'Why are you afraid of being poor? Think of the wealth of the kingdom of heaven. People are afraid of poverty; let them be afraid, rather, of iniquity. After the poverty of the just, in any case, will come great prosperity, because there will be complete security; here, on the other hand, the more you increase what are called riches but are really not so, you also increase fear, and you don't put an end to greed. You can find me many rich people, can you find me one who has no worries? He's in a fever to go on getting, he's in a sweat about losing. When can such a slave ever be free?' (Sermo 53A).

In this coming Sunday's Gospel, Jesus begins His great Sermon on the Mount. He begins with the attitudes we are to have to live our lives in relationship with God, and according to God's will (which we are going to hear more about when we continue to hear from the Sermon on the Mount in the coming weeks). The key theme of these attitudes is detachment. Detachment from wealth. Detachment from pleasure. Detachment from power. And detachment from honour. If we empty ourselves of these things, through living out today's beatitudes in Christ, then true freedom will be ours in Christ, and we will be truly blessed. For we will live lives giving glory and praise to God in all things (St Benedict's Rule Ch: 57, v9).

Commissioning St Benedict's College and St Benedict's Primary School Staff

At our 8:30am Mass this Sunday (January 29) we will be blessing and commissioning the leaders, teachers and staff from both the Catholic schools in our St Benedict's Parish. Please note that we will be reserving the front rows for the College and School staff. I apologise for any inconvenience that this may cause.

Let us welcome the staff of both schools with great joy. Please pray that God will bless them abundantly as they answer God's call to give the students at both schools a high quality Catholic education.

Lenten Resource

Evangelisation Brisbane's Advent and Lenten resources are excellent. This year's Lenten and Easter Octave reflection resource is From Ashes to Hope. It has been written by Shane Dwyer and Janiene Wilson, to provide each of us with the opportunity to spend a few minutes a day calling out to God from our hearts.

Archbishop Mark strongly recommends this resource to us in his foreword writing, "I commend 'From Ashes to Hope' to you as a faithful companion on the journey together through Lent to Easter, the synodal path from death to life."

This Sunday's Readings, 29th January 2023

1st Reading - Zeph: 2:3; 3:12-13

Psalm: Psalm 145:7-10

2nd Reading - 1 Cor 1:26-31

Gospel - Matthew 5:1-12

Based on the readings for each day of Lent, Holy Week and the Easter Octave, this prayer and reflection resource provides an opportunity for each of us to turn the eyes of our hearts to God as God leads us beyond ashes to hope.

The 2023 Resource is available at the Mass Centre for $5.00 each.

Lenten Retreat

Lent is a time where we make a concerted effort to connect with God more in prayer, so that we can be blessed with a deeper understanding of the Paschal Mystery (the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus).

This year we have Shane Dwyer, co-author of "From Ashes to Hope", directing us in our Lenten Retreat. I encourage you all to join us on Saturday March 11, from 9am to 2pm at St Mary's Parish Centre, Woodford. As a parish, we will be car pooling. So, please book-in for this retreat using the following link: Northern Rivers Deanery Retreat Booking Form . Please let me know (roeb@bne.catholic.net.au) if you need a lift. It will great to see you there.

Our Christmas Raffle—Thank You!

Thank you to Joy and Mike Gibbs, who raised $2 106.55 with our Christmas raffle. They work tirelessly to put us all in a good position to build our church.

Joy and Mike would like to thank all of our parishioners and visitors, who supported this raffle. And they make a special thankyou to Officeworks North Lakes, Meatland North Lakes, and our parishioners who very kindly donated prizes. They would also like to congratulate all our lucky winners. And I echo those words of thanks.

Our St Benedict's Youth and Young Adults

At our 8:30am Mass last Sunday we celebrated a wonderful thanksgiving Mass for Chrisma Shaji. Thanking her for her great leadership of our youth and young adults at St Benedict's as our Youth Coordinator. Chrisma has served us in this ministry for over five years, leading our youth and young adults to a stronger relationship with Jesus and each other.

We are blessed to have Brandon D'Silva and Kali Yopp as newly appointed Youth Coordinators to build on the great foundation that Chrisma has laid. Please pray for them in this very important ministry for the life of our Church and Parish.

Parish Office will Reopen Next Monday

Our Parish Office will reopen on Monday January 30, 2023. Renae will be very busy next week completing the administration for the parish for the whole of January. So, please don't bombard her with requests to allow her time to settle back in.

Have a great week everyone, as humble servants and friends of the Lord,

Fr Bryan.
